General Terms and Conditions of MAXIMATOR GmbH

I. Applicability of “General Terms and Conditions of MAXIMATOR GmbH” and offer
1. Unless the parties have expressly agreed otherwise, these “General Terms and Conditions of MAXIMATOR GmbH, Lange Straße 6, 99734 Nordhausen, Germany” (current as of July 2018)” (hereinafter “Terms and Conditions”) govern all supplies of machine or machine parts by MAXIMATOR GmbH (hereinafter “MAXIMATOR”).
2. The Customer’s order constitutes a binding offer made by the Customer to MAXIMATOR, by which the Customer is bound for a period of four weeks after MAXIMATOR’s receipt thereof. The agreement is not concluded unless MAXIMATOR has expressly accepted the Customer’s order by issuing a written order confirmation.
3. Any oral commitments made by MAXIMATOR prior to the execution of the agreement are binding in nature, unless the parties have expressly agreed otherwise, and a written agreement supersedes any oral agreement made between the parties that does not specify that it is to continue in full force and effect. Changes and amendments to agreements made, including these Terms and Conditions, must be made in writing – a formal requirement that a transmission by facsimile satisfies but transmissions using means of telecommunications, such as electronic mail, do not.

II. Purchase prices, terms of payment
1. The purchase price is stated “ex works,” with the Customer bearing any and all costs of packaging, shipping and transport as well as duties, taxes and other public dues.
2. MAXIMATOR will not take back shipping and other packaging materials subject to the machine or machine parts by MAXIMATOR GmbH (hereinafter “MAXIMATOR”).
3. Unless the parties have expressly agreed otherwise, these “General Terms and Conditions of MAXIMATOR GmbH, Lange Straße 6, 99734 Nordhausen, Germany” (current as of July 2018)” (hereinafter “Terms and Conditions”) govern all supplies of machine or machine parts by MAXIMATOR GmbH (hereinafter “MAXIMATOR”).
4. MAXIMATOR specifically notes that information supplied about machines (e.g., weight, dimensions, present utilization value, load, tolerance level and technical data) as well as any representation of such information (e.g., drawings and illustrations) are approximations unless a precise match is needed for the machine’s fitness for the intended and agreed purpose. Such information shall not constitute guaranteed characteristics but instead serves as a description or characterization. Common deviations and those resulting from legal provisions or technical improvements are permissible, as is the replacement of components by parts of equal value, provided that the fitness for the intended and agreed purpose is not compromised as a result.
5. General terms and conditions of the Customer or third parties do not apply even if MAXIMATOR does not specifically object to them in a given case. Even if MAXIMATOR references a letter containing the general terms and conditions of the Customer or third parties, such reference does not imply MAXIMATOR’s agreement with the applicability of such general terms and conditions.

III. Delivery period and partial deliveries
1. The contractually agreed delivery period applies. Insofar as goods are to be shipped, the Customer has use for partial deliveries as part of the agreed purpose of use.
2. The purchase price is exclusive of sales tax in the applicable amount.
3. Until specifically agreed otherwise with the Customer, the purchase price for any machine is due as follows:
   - 30% upon the execution of the agreement, payable within ten days;
   - 30% ten days prior to the agreed shipment or delivery of the machine to the Customer, its representative or freight carrier, payable within ten days; and
   - the balance upon the shipment or delivery of the machine to the Customer, its representative or freight carrier, payable within thirty days.

IV. Transfer of risk, acceptance, default
1. The Customer bears any and all risks associated with shipment and transport, which pass to the Customer upon the delivery of the goods (as defined as the beginning of the loading process) to the shipper, freight carrier or other third party entrusted with the transport even in the event of (i) partial deliveries or (ii) MAXIMATOR having assumed other costs, such as the cost of shipping or transportation and set-up, save for goods subject to Item IV Nos. 6-9.
2. In the event that the Customer refuses acceptance of ordered goods in a manner constituting a default in acceptance or if their shipment is delayed for other reasons culpably caused by the Customer, the risk of the machine’s accidental demise or deterioration passes to the Customer upon the beginning of such default.
3. In the event that the Customer is in default with acceptance or if it violates other duties of cooperation, it must indemnify MAXIMATOR against any damages incurred to such extent, including but not limited to added expenditures. Specifically, the Customer bears the costs of MAXIMATOR’s storage of any machine so affected, which MAXIMATOR may invoice at a flat rate of 0.5% of goods’ purchase price, unless the Customer furnishes proof to the effect that MAXIMATOR did not incur any – or less – damages as a result of storing such machine. MAXIMATOR’s other legal rights arising from default in acceptance, if any, are not affected.
4. The Customer must accept delivery of any ordered goods even if the goods have minor defects; the Customer’s rights under Item VII are not affected.

V. Retention of title
1. In the event that MAXIMATOR is in default, causing the Customer to suffer damages, the latter is entitled to demand compensation for default at a flat rate of 0.5% per week of default, the sum of which must not exceed 5% of the value of the part of the entire delivery that cannot be put to timely – or the agreed – use due to default.
2. The Customer hereby already assigns to MAXIMATOR its claims under the resale transaction pursuant to Item V Nos. 6-9.
3. The Customer treats and processes Goods Subject to Retention of Title on behalf of MAXIMATOR as manufacturer within the meaning of Sec. 950 of the Civil Code (BGB) and to the exclusion of any obligation on MAXIMATOR’s part. Goods treated or processed are deemed Goods Subject to Retention of Title according to Item V No. 1. In the event that the Customer treats, processes, combines or mixes Goods Subject to Retention of Title with other goods, creating new or combined goods, MAXIMATOR becomes a co-owner of these new or combined goods; proportion of the effective invoice amount of the Goods Subject to Retention of Title at the time of delivery to the value of such processed or combined goods. Co-ownership shares are deemed Goods Subject to Retention of Title according to Item V No. 1.
4. In the event that Goods Subject to Retention of Title are combined with other goods, and if goods belonging to the Customer must be deemed the principal component of the machine or machine parts by MAXIMATOR GmbH (hereinafter “MAXIMATOR”), the parties hereby agree that the retention-of-title clause agreed below serves the purpose of securing MAXIMATOR’s present and future claims against the Customer under the agreement entered into between the parties.
5. The Customer hereby already assigns to MAXIMATOR its claims under the resale transaction pursuant to Item V Nos. 6-9.
6. The Customer hereby already assigns to MAXIMATOR its claims under the resale transaction of Goods Subject to Retention of Title, including those under contracts for work and services or agreements for the supply of movable goods to be made or manufactured, along with any and all subsidiary rights, such claims serving as security for MAXIMATOR with respect to Goods Subject to Retention of Title to the same extent. The Customer must not assign claims to third parties without MAXIMATOR’s prior written consent.
7. In the event that the Customer sells Goods Subject to Retention of Title along with other goods not supplied by MAXIMATOR, the assignment of the claim under the resale transaction is valid only in the sum of the effective amount of MAXIMATOR’s invoices in such goods and the resale transaction must be settled at the sale of a machine co-owned by MAXIMATOR pursuant to Item V No. 3 or Item V No. 4, the claims’ assignment is valid in the amount of such co-ownership share.
8. In the event that the assigned claim is included in a current account, the Customer hereby already assigns to MAXIMATOR the amount of the balance corresponding with the claim included in the current account.
9. Until further notice, the Customer is entitled to collect receivables under resale transactions pursuant to Item V Nos. 6-9.
General Terms and Conditions of MAXIMATOR GmbH

(Current as of July 2018)

11. In the event that the Customer fails to meet its obligations under these Terms and Conditions,
   - MAXIMATOR may prohibit the resale, treatment and/or processing of Goods Subject to Retention of Title as well as their combination or compounding with other goods;
   - Insofar as such failure constitutes a material breach of these Terms and Conditions, MAXIMATOR may withdraw from the agreement with the Customer, in which case (i) the Customer’s right to possess Goods Subject to Retention of Title lapses, (ii) MAXIMATOR may demand that such goods be returned, (iii) MAXIMATOR is entitled to enter the Customer’s premises, take possession of Goods Subject to Retention of Title at the Customer’s expense and, without prejudice to the Customer’s payment and other obligations, put them to the best possible use by either selling them in the open market or auctioning them off, applying the proceeds, as adjusted for related costs, to the Customer’s liabilities and disbursing any surplus to the Customer; and
   - the Customer must identify to MAXIMATOR upon request the debtors of the claims assigned to MAXIMATOR to enable MAXIMATOR to disclose the assignment and collect receivables; all proceeds to which MAXIMATOR is entitled under assignments must be disbursed to MAXIMATOR without delay upon receipt once MAXIMATOR’s claims against the Customer are due.

VII. Warranty for defects

1. The Customer holds claims based on defects only if and to the extent that it met its duties of examination and defect notification (Secs. 377, 381 of the German Commercial Code (HGB)). In the event that a defect is identified upon examination or at a later point in time, MAXIMATOR must be given written notice thereof immediately, which for purposes hereof means that notice must be dispatched within two weeks. If the Customer fails to properly discharge its duties of examination and/or defect notification, it forfeits any claims related to the defect not notified. This shall not apply insofar as such defect was undetectable during proper examination.

2. Defects shall be remedied by MAXIMATOR, at MAXIMATOR’s option, through free-of-charge removal of defects (repair) or replacement.

3. Within subsequent performance, MAXIMATOR is not obliged to reimburse the necessary expenses incurred by the Customer for the removal of the defective machine or the fitting or installation of the repaired or replaced defect-free machine. Subsequent performance shall always be carried out at the MAXIMATOR company seat. The Customer shall bear the cost of shipping the machine to the MAXIMATOR company seat.

4. If such remedial action fails, the Customer may, at its option, withdraw from the agreement or demand that the purchase price be adequately reduced.

5. Irrespective of circumstances, the Customer holds no claims based on defects if and to the extent that damages resulted from inapt or improper handling, improper installation and commissioning by the Customer or third parties, regular wear and tear, improper or negligent treatment or maintenance, inappropriate operating resources or substitute materials, poor construction work, unsuitable building areas or chemical, electrochemical or electrical interference, provided and to the extent that such circumstances have not been culpably caused by MAXIMATOR.

6. The Customer’s claims for damages or indemnification for expenditures incurred in vain are limited as set forth in Item VIII and otherwise excluded.

7. The warranty period lapses one (1) year from the delivery, or upon acceptance if acceptance was agreed. This shortening of the statute of limitations shall not apply in case of fraudulent intent or absence of a quality guaranteed by MAXIMATOR. In such cases, solely the statutory limitation periods shall apply.

VIII. Liability

1. MAXIMATOR bears unlimited liability for (i) damages resulting from injuries to life, body and health, which were culpably caused by MAXIMATOR, its legal representatives or agents, (ii) damages owing to the lack of properties and conditions warranted by MAXIMATOR following the execution of the agreement (e.g., notices to cure default, of defect, rescission or abatement) must be provided in writing.

2. MAXIMATOR further bears unlimited liability for damages caused by MAXIMATOR, its legal representatives or agents intentionally or as a result of gross negligence.

3. In cases of culpable violations of cardinal contractual obligations owing to slight negligence on the part of MAXIMATOR, its legal representatives or agents, MAXIMATOR’s liability is limited to the amount of foreseeable typical damages, save for the cases set forth in Item VIII No. 1 or Item VIII No. 4. In abstract terms, cardinal contractual obligations are such obligations as may (i) be needful for the agreement’s proper fulfillment and (ii) reasonably be relied upon by the parties to the agreement.

4. Any liability under the product liability act is not affected.

5. Any other liability on the part of MAXIMATOR is expressly excluded.

6. The period of limitation for claims for damages against MAXIMATOR equals one (1) year, excluding the cases set forth in Item VIII no. 1, Item VIII No. 2 or Item VIII No. 4.
